All Natural Preserves

It's the nature of things that the secret of a good preserve isn't a secret. Darbo All Natural preserves are based on an old family recipe. Then, as now, we use only high-quality fruits gently heated and stirred. This helps preserve the natural fruit aroma. The high fruit content also ensures that our preserves provide an unforgettable flavor experience - Darbo All Natural preserves in the fancy jar.

It goes without saying that only the best fruits and a high fruit content of 55 % (orange 35 %) are good enough for Darbo. And not only are these preserves delicious, they're pleasing to the eye too - because the extremely appetizing glass jars with their fruit design look perfect on any breakfast buffet. The neutral packaging design also harmonizes well with whatever house look a catering establishment may have.

Fruits, sugar, concentrated lemon juice and the gelling agent pectin are processed to make our All Natural preserves. We don't add artificial colorings or preservatives to our All Natural preserves.
